The language learnt from the videos can be used by the children in the following ways:

1. Some of them can be given roles to play e.g. A is a doctor; B is a teacher and so on.
Another child can ask: What do you do?

A: I am a doctor.

They can try adding:

I look after people when they are sick or hurt.

2. What does a postman do?

A postman delivers letters and packages.

After watching the videos, children can be made to ask and answer:

What do you want to be?

Let the children practise saying the sentences.

After they become familiar with the sentences, you could say some words and let the children form a sentence.

e.g. baker /bread/ cakes.

Or

A butcher sells bread. Right or wrong?

Wrong. A butcher sells meat.

An actor acts in plays or films.

A baker bakes bread and cakes.

A barber cuts men's hair.

A butcher sells meat.

A carpenter makes things out of wood.

A chef cooks food in a restaurant.

A dentist looks after people's teeth.

A doctor treats sick people.

A farmer grows crops and looks after animals.
